K+S Aktiengesellschaft: New Labor Director

Mrs. Christina Daske appointed to the Board of Executive Directors

The Supervisory Board of K+S Aktiengesellschaft has appointed Mrs. Christina Daske as a further member of the Board of Executive Directors of the Company. She will assume her duties as Labor Director on December 1, 2023.

“With Mrs. Daske, we are appointing a proven leader from our own ranks to the Board of Executive Directors. Her extensive knowledge and experience, which she has acquired in strategic and operational management positions, most recently as Head of Production, at K+S over the past years, particularly characterize her. We wish her all the best and every success in her new role on the Board of Executive Directors,” says Dr. Andreas Kreimeyer, Chairman of the Company's Supervisory Board.

About K+S

We make an important contribution to society: We enable farmers securing the world's food supply. Our products keep numerous industries running. We enrich consumers' daily lives and ensure safety in winter. With around 11,000 employees, production sites on two continents, and a global distribution network, we are a reliable partner for our customers. At the same time, we are realigning ourselves: We are focusing even more strongly than before on fertilizers and specialties. We are becoming leaner, more cost-efficient, more digital, and more performance-oriented. On a solid financial basis, we are tapping into new markets and business models. We are committed to our responsibility towards society and the environment in all regions in which we operate. Learn more about K+S at www.kpluss.com.
